Modern Slavery Statement and Section 54 Reporting Exemption
MSE

For the financial year ended 30.06.2025, Digital Devices Ltd's total turnover, including any subsidiary undertakings, was below £36 million. The company is therefore outside the mandatory annual reporting requirement under section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015. This statement is provided voluntarily and in response to GCA's supplier compliance request.

Digital Devices Ltd supplies IT hardware and related services. We have zero tolerance for modern slavery and human trafficking within our business and supply chains.

Our approach includes checking employees' right to work, maintaining lawful pay and employment conditions, conducting proportionate supplier checks, and requiring ethical labour practices. Employees and business partners can report concerns to management without retaliation; concerns will be investigated and appropriate action taken.

We remain committed to complying with applicable anti-slavery laws and contractual obligations. We will review this statement and our reporting position annually.
